

Living in Love and Faith: The Course

To be heard we must have a voice – please join us for this course.

We will be running this course online (zoom) from 22nd April 2021, for five Thursday evenings, at 19:00 (with a break for Ascension on 13th May).

This course aims to help Christians think more deeply about what it means to be human.

It provides a way for local groups to engage in and reflect on Living in Love and Faith, a major exploration of Christian teaching and learning about identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage.

The five sessions of the course each address a key question:

- * What does it mean to learn together as followers of Jesus Christ?
- * How does our identity in Christ relate to sex and gender?
- * What kinds of relationships does God call us to?
- * Where do our bodies and sex fit in to all of this?
- * How do diversity and difference affect our life together as a church?

Each session will last around 1½ hours.

Each session includes an opening reflection about learning together, followed by teaching, time for discussion and Bible study. The sessions end with an invitation to reflect on our learning, bringing it to God in prayer.

At the end of each session, as a group we submit our answers to a few reflective questions. Our answers are fed back into the national discussion which will help to inform the House of Bishop's decision making going forward.

To be heard we must have a voice – please join us on this course.

To enrol please contact Rev'd Kirsty Emerson: kirsty.emerson@btinternet.com, 07956 688304.